

Pioneer Life

Farmers and early pioneers came to the area in the late 1700s. Life was very different back then. It was more challenging in many ways. Several hours of each day were spent growing and hunting food, cleaning, and gathering wood for cooking meals and for heating homes.

Many inventions were not available to pioneers. Match the old way of doing things with the way we do it today.

